

WEDNESDAY MEMO

12/2/09

Calendar Updates and Timely information

The Mathathon officially ends at 9:05AM, this Thursday, Dec. 3. All pledge forms must be submitted to the office by that time to qualify for the special prizes listed below:

- Every student who brings in $100 of pledges by the deadline will be entered in a drawing to be “Principal for a Day” with all the privileges (well, some of the privileges) pertaining to this position. Dr. Jo will attend all of the lucky student’s classes for the day. (Oh joy...)
- Student participants receive incentive gifts based on the total of pledges collected.
- The class that collects the highest amount per person receives a free dress day!

Congratulations to our Robotics Team, The Brookfield Blazers, who did so well at last weekend’s qualifying tournament that they progress to the regional tournament at St. Francis High School on Dec. 6th. Good luck kids! All are welcome to cheer on the team!

Thank you to the BPA and Bake Sale for purchasing new basketball hoops and to the Bake Sale for purchasing new playground balls.

Student Council Invites YOU to Recycle your old Halloween Costumes and help disadvantaged students! The used costumes will be donated to three programs at the Sacramento Food Bank and Family Services. Bring your old costumes to room 18. The costume drive ends Dec. 17th.

Operation Cratchit Donation Week is next week, Dec. 7-11. Please donate a new unwrapped toy for a needy child. Giftwrap, cash and check donations are also needed. Make checks payable to: Stanford Settlement. Bring your donation to the tables set up on the porch by the parking lot before school.

GOOO EAGLES! See “Flolo’s Footnotes” sports and health updates attached. Have YOU made your family reservation for “Court of Dreams?” Reservations are due December 18th.

- Reservation includes the Kings vs. Suns game!
- Brookfield families will be treated to a buffet dinner in the sky box prepared by the Maloof’s chef and Brookfield parent, Chef Cornet!
- More surprises to come! Don’t miss out! See the attached reservation form.

Lost and Found Crisis. The lost and found bin in the Multi-purpose room is overflowing with student sweatshirts, etc. Please check it if you are missing anything. We dispose of any unclaimed items during winter break. There is also a Reed and Barton stainless knife left behind from the Harvest Party in the office.
