

WEDNESDAY MEMO

1/27/10

Calendar Updates and Timely Information

Important Calendar Change!

The 1:00PM dismissal originally calendared for Wednesday, Feb. 17th has been changed to Thursday, Feb. 18th to allow teachers ample time to set up displays in the classrooms for the Celebration of Learning Open House and Science Fair.

Do You have Styrofoam? The Odyssey of the Mind Team need large blocks of Styrofoam for their project due on March 6th. Does anyone have access to free or discounted Styrofoam? The students will use it to build a giant molecule. Contact the office if you can help.

Send us your pennies and loose change! (Dollars and checks, too!)

Donate to the Pennies for Patients program benefitting the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. See the attached stories about local kids who will directly benefit from your generosity.

Registration Contracts for the 2010-11 school year are going home today in the blue folders for families of continuing students. Open enrollment for available spaces in grades 1-8 begins February 17th. If your child is in a full or nearly full class this year, please be sure to get your enrollment materials in by Feb. 12th so we can hold your child's place.

Please help the Haitian relief effort by purchasing hand-made beaded bracelets made with love by our very own Pre-first students! Pre-first parents will offer these for sale on Friday afternoon during the bake sale. Cost is $2.00 for adult size and $1.00 for child size.

GOOOO EAGLES! See Flolo's Footnotes attached.

Is your family attending the Court of Dreams on February 5th?

Chef Cornet needs a head count for the gourmet feast his is preparing for our enjoyment from 3:30-5:00PM before the Kings game. This feast is free to all Brookfield families attending! Please return the form below to the office this week.
